

COMMISSIONER MUST LOOK AT DOCUMENTS

THE police secretly check a journalist's phone record allegedly to catch one breach of discipline cop.

I think not.

When I attended and offered Commissioner John McRoberts first-hand police documents of one case of officer breach of discipline it was only one of a potential 1000 a year.

The Commissioner cut me off and ordered me to leave.

If the Commissioner was genuine he would have, as is required, accepted the complaint and looked at about 1000 breaches of discipline.
