

11. The father is not present in Court and for that reason I will make interim orders in respect of the application with provision for the father to file and serve any material on which he relies by way of response and affidavit material within 28 days and upon receipt by this Registry of any such documentation the matter will be listed before a Registrar for directions.
12. In the event that the father files and serves a response and affidavit material and the matter is listed then the application will be heard as soon as reasonably possible after the filing of the material.

I certify that the preceding twelve (12) paragraphs are a true copy of the reasons for judgment of the Honourable Justice Cleary
